

News Release

Wilmington Police Department – Sunday night fire kills 54-year-old man
Monday, October 20, 2014 - 12:00 pm

WILMINGTON, NC – A Sunday night house fire claimed the life of 54-year-old Steven Dale Worsham, of Wilmington. Wilmington Police and Fire Fighters arrived at 3406 Peachtree Ave. at 10:06 pm to the home fully engulfed in flames. Officers were unable to enter the home due to the heat and the structure beginning to collapse.

After the fire was extinguished, fire fighters were able to recover Worsham. The home was being renovated when the fire started and investigators have ruled out arson but have yet to determine a cause. The fire remains under investigation.